Greenfield and Company in 1947. He said that the records of the Land Title Building Corporation have been destroyed.

He stated he could not recall the appointee, but the accounting firm of Haskin and Sills, which handles the audit for the Land Title Building, may have some record reflecting the appointee's lease.

On December 5, 1960, JOHN F. WEST, partner, Haskin and Sills Accounting Firm, 1132 Land Title Building, advised his records reflect no information which would substantiate the time during which the appointee leased space in that building. He said the appointee was a tireless worker and an extremely competent attorney. He advised he is a person of far above average intelligence whom he would recommend for a highly responsible government position, without reservations. He stated there is not the slightest doubt in his mind regarding the loyalty of the appointee to this country or his character or reputation.

// He said the appointee opened his own law office in the Land Title Building in Philadelphia after he passed the Pennsylvania Bar Examination and he maintained his office until the early 1940s. He advised he did not believe he was associated with any other attorney, nor could he recall the location of the appointee's office in the Land Title Building. He stated the appointee also taught at the University of Pennsylvania Law School for a short period while he was conducting his own legal practice.

He said during the time he attended law school the appointee also worked on research for the American Law Institute on the subject of contracts. After he was admitted to the Bar, the appointee practiced law for a short time in Philadelphia until 1942. FREEMAN stated he was not associated with any partner during that period and he could not recall the exact location of his office in the center city section of Philadelphia.

Washington, D. C.

Mr. DONALD C. COOK, Executive Vice President, American Electric Power Company, Incorporated, 2 Broadway, New York, New York, advised on December 6, 1960, that the appointee had been a long-time employee of the Security Exchange Commission, and for the last several years has been on the staff of Senator JOHN F. KENNEDY. He advised that he first met the appointee prior to 1949 when they were both on the staff of the Security Exchange Commission (SEC). In 1949, Mr. COOK became a Commissioner, and as a result of this, his relationship with the appointee was broadened, and he (COOK) became acquainted with the operations of the commission and the individuals on the commission. From 1949 to the present time Mr. COOK has solidified his friendship with the appointee.

Mr. COOK stated that he became Chairman of the SEC in 1952 and left the commission in June, 1953. He stated that the appointee had been a member of the staff of the SEC since 1937. He stated that over a period of eleven years, he became greatly acquainted with the type of work the appointee was doing, his personal habits, his relationship with his fellow employees and his general character. He stated he has never visited the appointee's home and the latter has never visited his residence. He described the appointee as an extremely able lawyer and a man of quite remarkable ability. He advised that during one stage of the appointee's career with the SEC, he served with Senator LYNDON B. JOHNSON, in connection with the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Mr. COOK advised that he saw the results of the appointee's competent work on an almost daily basis from 1949 to 1953. He stated that he has had enough personal contact with the appointee to see the kind of people he has associated with and he (COOK) would recommend both the appointee and his associates as thoroughly loyal Americans. He stated that he knew of nothing in any way whatsoever that could be regarded as detracting from the character, reputation, personal and moral habits of the appointee. He stated that the appointee has always associated with competent and responsible individuals. He advised that if he (COOK) were again head of a governmental agency, he would not hesitate, regardless of the standards involved, of placing the appointee in a position of trust and confidence in that agency.

Associated Press
Hobart Taylor Jr., a Detroit Negro attorney, will become associate special counsel at the White House, President Johnson announced yesterday.

Taylor currently is executive vice chairman of the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity. When he was Vice President, Johnson served as the Committee's chairman.

The job will make Taylor one of the highest ranking Negroes in the Government.

Johnson also announced that Myer (Mike) Feldman would become the No. 1 White House legal officer. Johnson referred to Feldman's new assignment as "my general counsel."

White House aides explained that the President was using a generic term instead of a technical one. They explained that Feldman would retain his present title of deputy special counsel, but would be the top-ranking legal official at the White House.

Johnson said he was promoting Lee White from assistant special counsel to associate special counsel. Taylor and White thus will have equal ranks below Feldman's.

White, 40, joined the White House staff early in the Kennedy Administration. Before that he served as administrative assistant to Sen. John S.

Cooper (R-Ky.). White's home is in Omaha, Neb.

The job of special counsel has been vacant since Theodore C. Sorensen resigned to write a book about President Kennedy, with whom he was long associated.

Sorensen's duties, while manifold, embraced little actual, legal work.

Among other things, he was Kennedy's chief speech-writing aide and one of his key policy-makers.

Kennedy Aide Sued by Head Of Child Camp

A Pennsylvania children's camp operator is suing Myer Feldman, deputy special counsel to President Kennedy, for $1,024 in camp tuition charges he says Mr. Feldman owes him.

In papers filed in Municipal Court, Earle H. Weinberg of the Pocono Highlands Camp, Marshalls Creek, Pa., alleges that Mr. Feldman withdrew his daughter Jane, then 12, and son James, then 10, from the camp in the summer of 1960 without paying the full summer tuition as provided in a written agreement.

Mr. Weinberg claims he has been paid only $50 for James and $315 for Jane.

Through his attorney, William C. Wise, Mr. Feldman answered that he had made only an oral agreement to pay for one month at the camp. In a counter-suit in District Court here, Mr. Feldman claims Mr. Weinberg failed to take proper care of the children at the camp.

The District Court papers, not yet served on Mr. Weinberg, claim that Jane was injured by a horse and that a camp employe struck James in the face. When Mrs. Silva Feldman came to take the children home, the claim continues, Mr. Weinberg "falsely imprisoned" her and the children for three hours. Mr. Feldman is asking for $12,800 damages.

Two Suits Combined

The Municipal Court suit has been combined for trial with a similar one by Mr. Weinberg of Philadelphia against another Washington man, Abraham Rothbaum, 704 Peabody street N.W. Yesterday Judge Catherine B. Kelly ordered Mr. Weinberg to come here tomorrow to give depositions in the cases.

Mr. Feldman of 2828 Ellcott street N.W. is assistant to Theodore Sorensen, White House Special Counsel. Mr. Feldman was a Senate aide to Mr. Kennedy before the election.

The "Washington Post and Times Herald" on 4/5/64 contained an article indicating that the captioned individuals had received appointments on the Presidential staff. Taylor is to be an associate special counsel. Feldman the No. 1 White House legal officer and  The Director inquired what our files showed on these three individuals.

HOBART TAYLOR, JR.

Taylor was the subject of a Security of Government Employees investigation in 1961 at which time he was employed as an attorney with the Department of Labor. He was born in 1919 in Texarkana, Texas, graduated from the University of Michigan with a law degree and following his graduation in 1943 he was an attorney in Detroit, Michigan. Generally the investigation was favorable of Taylor. However, it did develop information indicating that Taylor had attended a Michigan Civil Rights Congress banquet in 1951. This organization is an affiliate of the Civil Rights Congress (cited as within the purview of Executive Order 10450).

In 1957 Taylor had contact with the Polish Ambassador (purpose of this visit not known). In 1949 Taylor was reported to be a sponsor of the Michigan Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights, which organization was organized in the Detroit area and supported by various front groups of the Communist Party.

In his application for employment, Taylor indicated membership in the National Lawyers Guild from 1949 to 1951. In 1959 he was listed as a member of the executive committee of the Detroit area Friends of the Southern Conference Educational Fund (cited as a communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities).

The results of our investigation concerning Taylor have been furnished the Civil Service Commission who made a favorable determination on loyalty in October, 1961. A summary of this information was also furnished to the White House in September, 1962. (140-24117) 161-34-28

MYER (MIKE) FELDMAN - Summary D.C.

Feldman was investigated in late 1960 at the request of the White House. This investigation was entirely favorable. He was born in 1914 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Following his graduation from the University of Pennsylvania Law School, he practiced law in Philadelphia until the early 1940's when he went with the Securities and Exchange Commission. He served in the Army from 1942 to 1946 returning to the Securities and Exchange Commission following his discharge. In 1958 he was appointed as an assistant clerk by John F. Kennedy (deceased).

Our files reveal that Feldman during his service at the White House has had innumerable contacts with the Israeli Ambassador and others on his staff, presumably on official business. (161-34)

[redacted]
[redacted] was investigated by the Bureau at the request of the White House during December, 1960, and January, 1961, at which time he was being considered for the position of White House [redacted]

[redacted] was born [redacted] and he received his LL.B. degree in [redacted]

[redacted] Investigation revealed Government employment on the part of [redacted] since July, 1950, and his positions included employment as [redacted] for John F. Kennedy during 1955 to 1957. From January, 1958, to the date of the investigation, he was employed [redacted] for John Sherman Cooper, Republican U. S. Senator from Kentucky.

During the investigation several prominent persons, including Senator Cooper, were interviewed and all reported favorably as to [redacted] character and loyalty. He was considered by those contacted as being a very capable attorney and all recommended him for a position of trust and confidence. Subsequent to the afore-mentioned investigation, [redacted] was designated in April, 1962, to handle civil rights problems with the Attorney General, on behalf of the White House.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont
Re: Hobart Taylor, Jr., Et Al.

Additional information in Bureau files reveals that in September 1961 information was received that Helen Sobell, [redacted]

[redacted] had heard from [redacted] [redacted] told her, according to an informant who has furnished reliable information in the past, that the time for being patient was over and she should get some action underway to indicate her impatience as to how the appeal for clemency was being handled. This information was furnished to the White House and the Attorney General. (161-148)

DETAILS:

ACQUAINTANCES

On November 10, 1964, RALPH H. DEMMLER, partner, law firm of Reed, Smith, Shaw and Mc Clay, Seventh Floor, Union Trust Building, Pittsburgh, Pa., was re-interviewed regarding MYER FELDMAN. DEMMLER advised that as he recalled he had been in contact with FELDMAN on only two occasions subsequent to the last interview with him (DEMMLER) in December, 1960; that one contact was merely an exchange of correspondence in which he (DEMMLER) had congratulated FELDMAN on his new position as Counsel to the President; that the second contact was on July 23, 1964, when he (DEMMLER) and 264 other businessmen throughout the United States were invited to the White House in Washington, D.C., by the President of the United States; that on this occasion and at the conclusion of their meeting with the President, he had an opportunity to talk briefly with FELDMAN as they were preparing to leave the White House.

DEMMLER stated that he had no additional information to add to the interview in December, 1960, regarding FELDMAN; that he still considered FELDMAN to be a man of the highest character and moral standards; that he knew of nothing derogatory regarding him; and that he would again recommend FELDMAN for a position of trust with the Government.

On November 10, 1964, ROGER S. FOSTER, attorney, Westinghouse Air Brake Company, Gateway Building No. 3, 13th Floor, Pittsburgh, Pa., was re-interviewed regarding MYER FELDMAN. FOSTER advised that since he was last interviewed in December, 1960, regarding FELDMAN he believed that he had seen FELDMAN on only one occasion, when he (FOSTER) was in Washington, D.C., at a business conference; that his association with FELDMAN at the conference was very limited and consisted of the passing of pleasantries; that he had no additional information to add to his interview of December, 1960, regarding FELDMAN and that he would again recommend FELDMAN for a position of trust with the Government.

SPECIAL INQUIRY

Synopsis:

EDGAR BELL, Manager, Television Station KWTU, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, advised that MYER FELDMAN and possibly two other individuals from Washington, D.C. area, believed to have purchased radio station KOMA, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, in approximately 1957 and operated station for approximately two years. FELDMAN not known to have any other financial interest in Oklahoma City area. Record reviews at Dun and Bradstreet, Credit Bureau, Corporation Commission, State and County Tax Offices, and Police Department negative as to FELDMAN.

- RUC -

DETAILS:

The following investigation was conducted in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on November 20, 1964:

NORMAN BAGWELL, Manager, WKY Television and Radio Station, advised that he was not acquainted with MYER FELDMAN, and to the extent of his knowledge FELDMAN has had no connection with radio station KOMA in the Oklahoma City area during the past six or seven years. BAGWELL stated that KOMA has been sold on two or three occasions during the past several years and he was not acquainted with the present organization which owns this station. BAGWELL suggested that Mr. EDGAR BELL be contacted at television station KWTU as it was believed BELL would be familiar with the ownership of KOMA radio station.

EDGAR BELL, Manager, KWTU, 7501 North Kelly, advised that KOMA was previously owned by the company which presently owns KWTU and in approximately 1957 radio station KOMA was sold to a group of individuals from the Washington, D.C. area which it was believed MYER FELDMAN was one of these individuals. BELL stated that as he recalled there were three individuals connected with the company which purchased KOMA. BELL stated that KOMA has since been sold on several occasions and as he recalled the group from Washington D.C. only operated this station for approximately two years.

BELL stated that he believes that KOMA is presently owned by the Storz Organization, which has its main offices in Florida.

JUDY CAMERON, Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., 1500 Linwood, reviewed her records and advised they contained no listing for MYER FELDMAN. CAMERON further advised, however, that Dun and Bradstreet files are maintained on a current basis and would only go back to 1963. She further advised that in most instances the files are maintained in the name of the organization but there would be no reference maintained in Oklahoma City as to ownership of KOMA as this station reportedly is owned by an organization from Miami, Florida, and all detailed information concerning present ownership would be maintained by Dun and Bradstreet in Miami. In regard to files of the company concerning businesses operated in 1957 and 1958 CAMERON advised that these files would have been destroyed.

The following individuals advised that their files are maintained in the names of companies or corporations only and that they normally do not keep their records filed under the names of individuals associated with the company. In each instance the persons contacted reviewed their files for the name MYER FELDMAN but were unable to locate any record.

JACK WETTENGEL, Assistant Secretary of State,
Secretary of State's Office, State of Oklahoma - corporation records;

Mrs. DEONA RAY, Corporation Commission;

VERNA JENKINS, Franchise Tax Division, Oklahoma State Tax Commission.

Assistant Secretary of State JACK WETTENGEL caused a detailed review of his records to be made pertaining to radio station KOMA and advised that this station was originally incorporated in 1951 as KOMA, Inc., in 1957 the corporation name was changed to Video Investment Company, and in 1961 this company merged with the Central-South Sales Company, an Arkansas corporation, which later changed its name to KATV, INC. WETTENGEL advised that in all of these connections, indications in his records are that the corporation name changes were still all connected with the same individuals who had originally incorporated this organization in 1951.

VERNA JENKINS, Franchise Division, Oklahoma State Tax Commission, advised that her files under the Video Investment Company, show that officers associated with this corporation were JAMES C. LEAK, President; MARJORIE GRIFFIN LEAK, Vice President; and RAYMOND MATHIS as Secretary - Treasurer. There was no record indicating that MYER FELDMAN had any connection with this corporation.

The following individuals reviewed their records and advised they could locate no file identifiable with MYER FELDMAN:

CLETA CONNELLY, License Division, City Clerk's Office, City of Oklahoma City;

DEE MC CULLAR, Chattel Mortgage Division, County Clerk's Office, Oklahoma County;

KIT CARSON, Treasurer's Office, Oklahoma County;

OC 161-137

S. D. HOWELL, Personal Income Tax Division, Oklahoma
State Tax Commission;

ERMA DIVAN, Retail Credit Association;

GEORGIA REICH, Oklahoma City Police Department.

During contacts with DEE MC CULLAR, Chattel
Mortgage Section, County Clerk's Office, Oklahoma County, and S. D. HOWELL, Personal Income Tax Division, Oklahoma
State Tax Commission, both advised that they had no record of any tax liens being filed against MYER FELDMAN.

On November 16, 1964, IC [] caused a search to be made of the following and advised that no record could be located concerning the appointee:

It was ascertained by IC [] at the Bar Admissions, United States Supreme Court, that the appointee was admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court on January 1, 1949 and was currently in good standing.

On November 20, 1964, IC [] reviewed the indices of the United States District Court, District of Columbia, Civil Actions Section and the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions, Civil Division and no record was found of any tax lien against the appointee for the years 1961 to the present.

Civil Action Number 1465-61 at the United States District Court for the District of Columbia reviewed on November 20, 1964, by IC [] reflected the following information:

Complaint (for personal injuries) dated May 12, 1961, indicated that GIZILLA MOSKOVITZ, 5344 Gainor Road, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania (plaintiff) sued MYER and [] 2828 Ellicott, N.W., Washington, D.C. (defendants) for $25,000.

The plaintiff alleged she fell in the defendant's home on September 16, 1960 and suffered severe injuries. The plaintiff alleged negligence on the part of the defendant and demanded trial by jury.

On October 13, 1964, attorneys for both the plaintiff and the defendant advised the court to dismiss the action. The file indicated the plaintiff is the mother-in-law of MEYER FELDMAN.

Case Number M 114 99-61, maintained in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions, Civil Division, was reviewed on November 20, 1964 by IC [] and reflected the following:

Complaint dated April 14, 1961 was filed by [] trading as Pocono Highland Camps, 6528 Castor Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania (plaintiff), suing MEYER FELDMAN, 2828 Ellicott Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., (defendant) for $1024.56.

The plaintiff alleged that the defendant entered into a written agreement to pay Pocono Highland Camps tuition of $695 each for [] and [] for the camp season July 1, 1960 to August 28, 1960. The defendant paid $50 each as downpayment and after one month the defendant took his children from the camp. The plaintiff received a partial tuition refund of $265.44 from an insurance company. The plaintiff claims the defendant violated the contract and therefore owes the balance of $1024.56. The defendant claims the plaintiff conducted the affairs of the camp improperly and negligently. He claimed his daughter was injured and his son was struck and abused and injured by an employee of the plaintiff. (The defendant sued the plaintiff in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in the amount of $11,100, CA1389-61)

A praecipe was filed on October 11, 1961 by the attorney's for both the plaintiff and the defendant advising the court to dismiss this case. CA 1389-61 in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia also dismissed on October 11, 1961.

It should be noted that the October 10, 1961 issue of the Washington "Evening Star" carried an item captioned "KENNEDY aide Sued by Head of Child Camp", which reads as follows:

"A Pennsylvania children's camp operator is suing MEYER FELDMAN, deputy special counsel to President KENNEDY, for $1,024 in camp tuition charges he says Mr. FELDMAN owes him.

WFO 161-16

" In papers filed in Municipal Court, [redacted] of the Pocono Highlands Camp, Marshalls Creek, Pennsylvania, alleges that Mr. FELDMAN withdrew his daughter [redacted] then [redacted] and son [redacted] then [redacted] from the camp in the summer of 1960 without paying the full summer tuition as provided in a written agreement.

" [redacted] claims he has been paid only $50 for [redacted] and $315 for [redacted]

" Through his attorney, [redacted] Mr. FELDMAN answered that he had made only an oral agreement to pay for one month at the camp. In a counter-suit in District Court here, Mr. FELDMAN claims [redacted] failed to take proper care of the children at the camp.

" The District Court papers, not yet served on [redacted] claim that [redacted] was injured by a horse and that a camp employee struck [redacted] in the face. When [redacted] came to take the children home, the claim continues, [redacted] "falsely imprisoned" her and the children for three hours. Mr. FELDMAN is asking $12,600 damages.

" The Municipal Court suit has been combined for trial with a similar one by [redacted] of Philadelphia against another Washington man, [redacted] Yesterday Judge CATHERINE B. KELLY ordered [redacted] to come here tomorrow to give depositions in the cases.

" Mr. FELDMAN of 2828 Ellicott Street, N.W., is assistant to THEODORE SORENSEN, White House Special Counsel. Mr. FELDMAN was a Senate aide to Mr. KENNEDY before the election."

It is further noted that the January 12, 1961 issue of the Washington "Evening Star" carried an article captioned "KENNEDY Aide to Sell Station", which reads as follows:

WFO 161-16

" The Federal Communications Commission has authorized MEYER FELDMAN of Philadelphia, who is to become a White House aide in the KENNEDY administration, to dispose of his interest in Radio Station KLAD at Klamath Falls, Oregon.

" Mr. FELDMAN and associates will transfer KLAD to OGDEN KNAPP for $175,000.

" Mr. FELDMAN will serve after January 20 as assistant to THEODORE SORESENSEN, White House special counsel. He has been an aide to Mr. KENNEDY in the Senate."

In August, 1962 SA CARL L. BENNETT reviewed the ownership and license files for radio station KOMA at the Federal Communications Commission which reflected an application for assignment of the license of radio station KOMA, dated November 13, 1956, was filed with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) requesting authority to assign the license from KOMA, Incorporated, to Radio Oklahoma, a partnership.
